

Handling Conflict

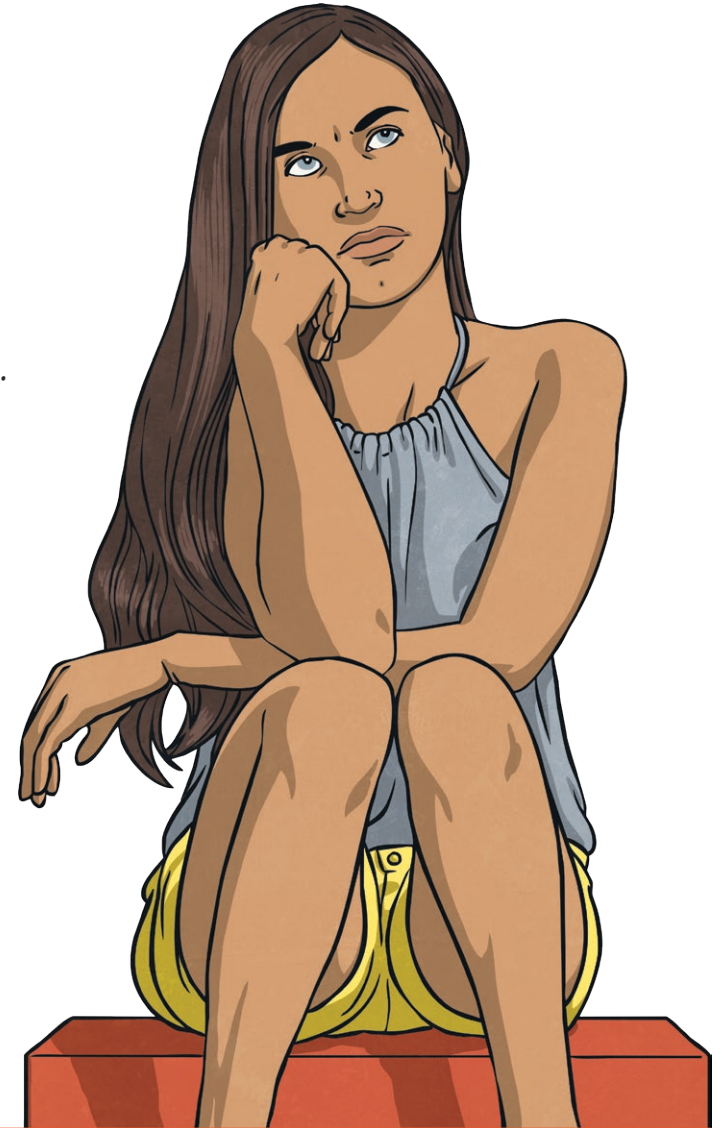

Everyone has times when they have to deal with conflict. Conflict is where there is a serious disagreement or argument.

Conflict usually involves two or more people who have different opinions to each other.

Can you think of ways you could handle conflict?

On the next page, write all the ways you can think of to stop the conflict from getting worse.

There is an example to help you get started.

Handling Conflict

Stay calm and think carefully before speaking.